A Correction.
In the printed list of subscribers to the San Francisco Relief Fund last week the amount of Peale-Walker Co. was made to read $1.00 where it should have been $5.00.

By mistake the names of C. O. Jones for $1.00 and Allan Chamberlain for $1.00 was omitted from the printed list. Since publishing the list we have received a check of $5.00 from John Reinhart, of McKinley, to be added to the fund, which we turned over to the city committee to be forwarded with the balance in cash to the relief committee at San Francisco. Allen Keyner was credited with potatoes instead of $1 cash, and the name of Mrs. J. N. Grimm, who gave a bushel of potatoes was omitted from the printed list.

Another Dollar for Japan Sufferers.

It is full grown and measures eight feet from tip to tip of its wings. One wing has been slightly hurt which enabled him to catch it. He left it at Taylor's photograph gallery Tuesday to have a photograph taken of it. It does not seem the least bit shy but defends itself vigorously with its beak.

An Explanation.
It was through a misunderstanding at the house that the remains of John Marshall were not opened at the church. I am sorry it was so.
